

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Stan Singpiel has devoted his entire professional career, spanning thirty-five years, in the postal service; and,

WHEREAS, Stan's career in the postal service began in 1945 with the Railway Mail Service in Sioux City, where the railroad was used to dispatch mail to neighboring states, and it was the clerk's job to sort mail as the train rolled down the tracks; and,

WHEREAS, During the following twenty-one years Stan worked his way up from a mail clerk to a postmaster at the post office in Rapid City; and,

WHEREAS, Stan has served as postmaster in Sioux Falls since 1973, being responsible for more than 1500 employees and 254 post offices; and,

WHEREAS, October 4 is the day chosen to honor Stan at a retirement party, and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this special occasion:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 4, 1980, as

STAN SINGPIEL DAY

In South Dakota, and on behalf of all the citizens of this State, I extend to Stan our thanks for the valuable services which he has rendered, and our wishes for an enjoyable and satisfying retirement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fourth Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE
